

JESUS: GOD REVEALED

Life-changing Truth Peter Learned from and about His Heavenly Father
Luke 9:18-20, Matthew 16:13-20
June 17, 20-21, 2015: Cam Huxford, Senior Pastor

Psalm 90:12

Being a Dad is a high impact privilege...but it's a temporary privilege...so we want to make the most of these days.

Christ is the Greek rendering of the Hebrew word for Messiah. This is the title for the heroic leader, whose coming was promised in the Garden of Eden, who would come to redeem and save God's people.

1 Peter 2:19;21;23, James 3:8-9

Questions for Fathers and People Praying for Fathers:

1. Fathering skills come naturally. Just make a few babies, follow your gut, and all will be well. True or False? Proverbs 23:24
2. Fathers play a more important role in the lives of their sons than they do in the lives of their daughters? True or False?
3. Stepfathers have significantly less impact on children than their biological fathers? True or False?
4. A father's attitudes toward morality, work, play, money, and racial diversity have a lifelong effect on a child? True or False?
5. Fathers who make major investments in their marriage are simultaneously making a positive investment in their children? True or False?
6. A father's provision for his children is significantly more important than a father's affection? True or False?
7. Wounds from a father can never be overcome? True or False? 2 Corinthians 5:17

The healing power of our Heavenly Father is greater than the wounding power of our earthly fathers.

Being a Dad is a high impact privilege...but it's a temporary privilege...so we want to make the best use of these days.

School Uniform Collection

Through June and July

Choose Compassion and donate the gently-used school uniforms your children have outgrown to help families in need in our community. We are collecting shirts in purple, white, red, black and hunter green only. Please leave freshly-laundered donations in the collection bins in Connecting Point.

Re-Marriage Check-Up Workshop

9 a.m. - noon, Saturday, June 27

Room 214, Adult Ministry Center across the street

Designed especially for couples who have been married previously, this workshop led by professional Christian counselor Dr. Doug Spears will enable you to identify the areas of your marriage that need attention and learn practical steps for making your relationship stronger. You'll take a survey in advance and explore the results during the workshop. There is a $30 fee to take the survey. Register at the LifeChange office at 912-629-3780.
