

JESUS: THE GOOD NEWS

“The Lost Son”, Luke 15:11-24

October 21, 24-25, 2015: Ken Philbeck, East Campus Pastor

“Tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus teach. This made the Pharisees and teachers of religious law complain that He was associating with such sinful people—even eating with them!”
Luke 15:1-2 NLT

Lost people matter to God! Because God loves people more than anything.

We are ALL like the prodigal son. You don't look at the story and decide which character is you...
we're ALL the prodigal.

You can run from God, but you can't outrun God.

In spite of your past, you can come home.

The Father is waiting for you.
