

Listening to God

Getting Your House in Order

Sermon Discussion Guide for the week of February 24, 27-28, 2016

Main Point: God still speaks to His people today.

1 Thes 2:13-16, 1 Cor 2:11-14

CONNECT

When was the last time you had a dropped call? Who were you talking to? What were you talking about?

Do you find it easy or difficult to maintain your focus when you pray? Why do you think that is?

Have you ever heard God's voice? What was that experience like?

LEARN

Who are some people who can call you on the phone and you immediately recognize their voice?

How easy do you think it is to recognize the voice of God?

What are some of the Bible verses you can quote from memory?

Why do you think most people know John 3:16?

Have a volunteer read 1 Thessalonians 2:13-16

What does this verse say about the reason the apostle Paul was speaking to Gentiles?

How does this verse apply to hearing a sermon today?

Have you ever heard a sermon and felt like God was speaking directly to you? What did you do afterward?

Have a volunteer read 1 Corinthians 2:11-14

In what ways do you believe God can speak to you individually? Why?

Describe a time in your life when you followed something you felt God wanted you to do. What was the result?

How would you describe the difference between knowing the Bible and applying the Bible?

Why do you think God is still speaking to His people today?

SERVE

What are some practical ways we can engage and apply the Bible to our lives?

When was the last time you sat prayed and just listened for God to speak?

What questions are you hoping God will answer for you right now?

55 Al Henderson Blvd. | Savannah, GA 31419
912-925-9657 | www.SavannahChristian.com

GETTING YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER

PRAYER

Close your time in prayer. Thank God for speaking to us. Thank Him for preserving the Bible and helping us to apply it to our lives. Ask God to speak clearly to you through the Bible, through others and through prayer.

55 Al Henderson Blvd. | Savannah, GA 31419
912-925-9657 | www.SavannahChristian.com

GETTING YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER